

‘Like Father, Like Son’

Jeffrey Cook — the Sonoran Oracle, presents:

“Like Father, Like Son.”

A biblical examination of the greatest truth in Scripture.

In a world filled with imitation doctrine,
this presentation returns to what Scripture actually says—

revealing the true relationship between the
FATHER and the SON.

The greatest identity truth in Scripture:

the FATHER revealed through the SON.

The cornerstone of this study is found in several places in the New Testament, as follows:

Matthew 6:9 After this manner therefore pray ye: Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name.

6:10 Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven.

18:18 Verily I say unto you, Whatsoever ye shall bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever ye shall loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.

The words, 'in earth, as it is in heaven' is a statement of fact that on earth, the physical realm, and heaven, the spiritual realm, both go by the same moral laws. This is repeated in Chapter 18 of Matthew. 'Binding and loosening' are both Hebrew idioms, meaning, that which are bound are sinful and that which loosed are not. These deeds are not restricted. To tell a lie on earth is a sin. To tell a lie in heaven is also a sin. This should make sense.

And so is adultery and fornication a sin in both realms. Wait...What? These sins can only be attributed to the physical, right? Well, not so fast. Maybe, maybe not.

And it's not that ELOHIM just abides by these moral laws that encompass both realms. They are the very existence and character of ELOHIM.

So, with this fundamental understanding, let's do this.

Most people read Scripture through modern assumptions. But we today are far removed by time, culture, and language—and that distance causes us to miss critical nuances. Because of this, doctrines are formed from tradition, not from the text itself. And once that happens, imitation doctrine replaces truth. It's time to take a closer look.

Matthew

19:4 And he answered and said unto them, Have ye not read, that he which made them at the beginning made them male and female,

19:5 And said, For this cause shall a man leave father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife: and they twain shall be one flesh?

19:6 Wherefore they are no more twain, but one flesh. What therefore Elohim hath joined together, let not man put asunder.

19:7 They say unto him, Why did Moses then command to give a writing of divorcement, and to put her away?

19:8 He saith unto them, Moses because of the hardness of your hearts suffered you to put away your wives: but from the beginning it was not so.

These words spoken by the MESSIAH were heard by a people that lived them. It was part of their culture. It was who they were. The words represented their very existence. They knew immediately that HE was referring to the words found in Deuteronomy. But Mosheh took it upon himself to include additional statute. And this is where we start this exploration. With the words written by Mosheh.

Deuteronomy 24:1 When a man hath taken a wife, and married her, and it come to pass that she find no favour in his eyes, because he hath found some uncleanness in her: then let him write her a bill of divorcement, and give it in her hand, and send her out of his house.

24:2 And when she is departed out of his house, she may go and be another man's wife.

24:3 And if the latter husband hate her, and write her a bill of divorcement, and giveth it in her hand, and sendeth her out of his house; or if the latter husband die, which took her to be his wife;

24:4 Her former husband, which sent her away, may not take her again to be his wife, after that she is defiled; for that is abomination before Yahweh: and thou shalt not cause the land to sin, which Yahweh thy Elohim giveth thee for an inheritance.

These verses are to be laid at the feet of Mosheh. He is responsible for them. They did not come from ELOHIM. Mosheh gave them permission to divorce for just about any reason. Whether it be because one spouse was not living up to their duties, whether it be finances, or maybe the wife couldn't cook. Or the husband spent too much time with his friends. And this divorce could be initiated anytime during the marriage, as denoted by the phrase, 'come to pass'.

Yet just a few chapters before this 'blunder' of Mosheh, is found what YAHWEH had planned from the beginning.

Read what YAHSUA said Matthew 19:9. "Except that it be for fornication". When this verse is read today, people make the wrong assumption That fornication and adultery are the same thing. They are not. Read what YAHSUA said in Mark.

Mark 7:21 'For from within, out of the heart of men, proceed evil thoughts, adulteries, fornications, murders,

7:22 Thefts, covetousness, wickedness, deceit, lasciviousness, an evil eye, blasphemy, pride, foolishness:

7:23 All these evil things come from within, and defile the man.'

Here HE list types of sins. Notice that HE makes a distinction from adultery and fornication in verse 21. They are two separate sins. So how was divorce sanctioned by YAHWEH, to be practiced by not only the Hebrew people, but all mankind. The practice of divorce as it is known today, is not what ELOHIM intended for man. Keep in mind, YAHSUA was and is, a Torah observant Jew. When HE taught of divorcement, HE was referring to what is written in Deuteronomy.

Deuteronomy 22:13 If any man take a wife, and go in unto her, and hate her,

22:14 And give occasions of speech against her, and bring up an evil name upon her, and say, I took this woman, and when I came to her, I found her not a maid:

22:15 Then shall the father of the damsel, and her mother, take and bring forth the tokens of the damsel's virginity unto the elders of the city in the gate:

22:16 And the damsel's father shall say unto the elders, I gave my daughter unto this man to wife, and he hateth her;

22:17 And, lo, he hath given occasions of speech against her, saying, I found not thy daughter a maid; and yet these are the tokens of my daughter's virginity. And they shall spread the cloth before the elders of the city.

22:18 And the elders of that city shall take that man and chastise him;

To paraphrase these verses, If a man who marries a woman and, for some reason, dislikes her, talks trash about her. Stating that she is not a 'maiden,' a virgin, when they married. If they could not find any evidence such as traces of blood on the bedding, then it was declared that she had committed fornication before the marriage, and then the man could divorce her. This is the one and only time and reason that divorce is permitted in the scriptures, permitted by ELOHIM. However, if the parents do produce the evidence, then the husband is taken outside of town and given a butt kickin' for bad mouthing his bride.

In today's society and houses of worship it is taught and accepted that adultery is grounds for divorce.

(Click to continue)

Then the offended party remarries, thinking they are without sin. This happens all the time in today's society, even in churches. They would get a divorce because of adultery and months, years later, show up in church with a new spouse. Well that bill of divorcement that a judge signed is just a civil disillusionment of the marriage in man's law. By YAHWEH'S statute they are still married. 'Till death do they part' thing. That bill of divorcement is not worth the paper it is written on, worthless, by ELOHIM's standards.

It is as if in today's thinking that a marriage license should be similar to a drivers license that must be renewed every few years. So when a man or woman shows up in church with a new spouse after divorce, as long as the one ex spouses is still alive, the couple are committing adultery. They cannot marry. So, many people are committing adultery without knowing it because of Mosheh's blundering.

Whether it be adultery or fornication, sex before marriage, This is what Paul was writing of when teaching about defiling the temple.

1 Corinthians 3:16 'Know ye not that ye are the temple of Yahweh, and that the Spirit of Elohim dwelleth in you?'

3:17 'If any man defile the temple of Yahweh, him shall Elohim destroy; for the temple of Yahweh is holy, which temple ye are'.

He writes on, explaining how the temple is defiled.

1 Corinthians 6:15 'Know ye not that your bodies are the members of Messiah? Shall I then take the members of Messiah, and make them the members of an harlot? Certainly not.

6:16 What? know ye not that he which is joined to an harlot is one body? for two, saith he shall be one flesh.

(Click to continue)

6:17 But he that is joined unto the Master is one spirit.

6:18 Flee fornication. Every sin that a man doeth is without the body; but he that committeth fornication sinneth against his own body.

6:19 What? know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Spirit which is in you, which ye have of Elohim, and ye are not your own?"

The temple is defiled by sex before, or outside of marriage. All other sins originate from inside one's heart. This is what YAHSHUA was referring to in Mark.

Mark 7:21 'For from within, out of the heart of men, proceed evil thoughts, Thefts, covetousness, wickedness, deceit, lasciviousness, an evil eye, blasphemy, pride, foolishness:

All of the aforementioned are dealing with the physical, humanistic realms. Now to apply them to the heavenly, spiritual realm. Or to be more specific, how ELOHIM deals with mankind's sinful nature, and thus, revealing a long hidden truth. One of the most profound yet misunderstood statements YAHSHUA ever made was:

John 14:8-9: "Philip saith unto Him, Master, show us the Father, and it sufficeth us. YAHSHUA saith unto him, 'Have I been so long time with you, and yet hast thou not known me, Philip? He that hath seen me hath seen the Father; and how sayest thou then, Show us the Father?"

Key Insight: Philip was looking right at YAHSHUA but still he thought the Father was separate.
(Click to continue)

One of the deepest misunderstandings in theology is not just about Who YAHWEH is, but What He is. Most focus on YAHWEH's personal attributes, but they miss the fundamental nature of His being—His quantum, omnipresent, and non-dual existence. This ties directly into how YAHSHUA and YAHWEH are not separate entities, but one being, expressed in different manifestations. This is not just theology—this is divine physics beyond human comprehension.

Many misunderstand YAHSHUA's identity because they think in human terms—as if YAHWEH and YAHSHUA are two different entities. But this is a fundamental error.

John 10:30: "I and my Father are one." This does not mean one in purpose—it means one in being. YAHSHUA is not a separate "son" of YAHWEH—He is YAHWEH manifested in human form. And again, "If you have seen Me, you have seen the Father" (John 14:9)

YAHSHUA is not a separate being from YAHWEH. He is the visible expression of the invisible YAHWEH. When the infinite collapses into a form we can observe, that is YAHSHUA. When YAHWEH chose to manifest, He collapsed into physical existence as YAHSHUA; and They are one—the same being, in different observable states. This is why the disciples struggled to understand Him—they were looking at the infinite compressed into finite form! This is why YAHSHUA could forgive sins, calm storms, and raise the dead—He was YAHWEH in physical form. In physics, energy can exist in multiple states—a powerful energy field can be condensed into a smaller, localized form. YAHWEH is the infinite source—YAHSHUA is that source compressed into human form. If you saw YAHSHUA, you saw YAHWEH—not a different being, but the same being, observable in a limited way.

Supercomputer vs. Laptop Analogy:

A supercomputer is powerful but difficult to interact with directly. A laptop has the same core functions but is compressed for human usability. YAHWEH is the divine supercomputer—YAHSHUA is the same essence, compressed into a human-compatible form. Philip was looking at the “laptop” version of YAHWEH but didn’t realize it was connected to the infinite supercomputer. A laptop is a very handy tool. Fits really well in your lap. Not so with a supercomputer. These can be as big as a four bedroom house, drawing tremendous amount of power off the grid. A laptop can never handle the amount of power and information that a super computer has available. If an attempt was made to download all the information available to the laptop, the laptop would spontaneously combust... In your lap. The same applies for the human form of ELOHIM, YAHSHUA. A human being, or form, is not capable of containing that much power.

This leads to the question of why. Why did YAHWEH recreate Himself in the flesh? The original sin of Adam and Eve was committed in the physical realm, the flesh. Not in the spiritual realm as with the case of satan. Hence, the sacrifice, the penalty for sin, and the reconciliation of man with ELOHIM had to be paid in flesh and blood.

Jeremiah 3:8: “And I saw, when for all the causes whereby backsliding Israel committed adultery I had put her away, and given her a bill of divorce.”

(Click to continue)

Jeremiah 3:8: “And I saw, when for all the causes whereby backsliding Israel committed adultery I had put her away, and given her a bill of divorce.”

In the beginning, YAHWEH betrothed Himself to Israel, establishing a sacred covenant at Sinai. Israel was His Bride—chosen, beloved, and destined for holiness. Yet, Israel strayed. She broke the covenant, chasing after false gods and committing spiritual adultery.

And so, in accordance with His own law, YAHWEH did the unthinkable. He divorced Israel. He put her away and gave her a bill of divorce. And so, in accordance with His own law, YAHWEH did the unthinkable. He divorced Israel. He put her away and gave her a bill of divorce. But this act created a cosmic dilemma.

Deuteronomy 24:1-4: “Her former husband, which sent her away, may not take her again to be his wife, after that she is defiled.”

Under the law, a man cannot remarry his former wife once she has been defiled by another. The bond was broken, and by His own command, YAHWEH could never take Israel back. The law was perfect. Unbreakable. But love was eternal. Unyielding. And so, the Creator faced the ultimate paradox—how could He redeem His beloved Bride without breaking His own law?

.The Cosmic Solution: YAHWEH's Sacrifice. There was only one way to resolve this divine dilemma.

(Click to continue)

Romans 7:2-4: “For the woman who has a husband is bound by the law to her husband as long as he lives. But if her husband dies, she is released from the law of her husband... Therefore, my brethren, you also have become dead to the law through the body of Messiah, that you may be married to another—to Him who was raised from the dead.”

The law of marriage could only be superseded by death. But how could YAHWEH, the eternal, ever-living Elohim, die? The answer was incarnation—YAHWEH manifested in the flesh as YAHSHUA. And He did the unthinkable. He willingly died on the cross, taking upon Himself the judgment for sin.

His death was the cosmic collapse of the original marriage bond. And through death, the Bride was released—free to be married again.

The Resurrection: The New Covenant Bridegroom

Through resurrection, YAHSHUA became the new man—the perfected, eternal Groom. He was now legally free to remarry His purified Bride. The covenant was reset, not by breaking the law, but by fulfilling it perfectly.

The divorce: YAHWEH, bound by His own law, divorced Israel for her unfaithfulness.

The death: YAHWEH, manifesting as YAHSHUA, died to collapse the original bond.

The Resurrection—The new Groom arose, legally free to remarry.

This brings up one final aspect. The holy spirit.

5:7 For there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Spirit: and these three are one.

5:8 And there are three that bear witness in earth, the Spirit, and the water, and the blood: and these three agree in one.

This is what the earliest Greek manuscripts support: There are three that testify: the Spirit, the water, and the blood. The 'in heaven' line is not part of the early Greek textual tradition. Johannine Comma (also called Comma Johanneum) is the name given to a short inserted clause in 1 John 5:7–8. The Johannine Comma is a later doctrinal expansion to 1 John 5:7–8 that explicitly states a Trinitarian “three-in-one” formula. It is absent from the earliest Greek manuscript tradition, but doesn't appear in Latin sources until the late 4th century (around AD 385), in the same era when imperial Rome had begun enforcing state-sponsored orthodoxy. Including the 'Hocus-Pocus Trinity', a metaphysical shell game. Now to explain it so that it makes sense, lightly skimming the surface of the scholarly discipline, “Quantum Mechanics/Physics.” (Don't panic.)

The Quantum Existence of the Spirit Realm, Heaven

At the Quantum level, nothing exist as a particle. Every thing is a form of a type of energy.

(Click to continue)

Remember seeing this in grade school? A piece of paper with iron filings on top. A magnet is placed underneath and the iron filings line up. This is the results of the quantum wave energy. We can see the results but we cannot see the 'wave' itself. A magnetic wave is actually a quantum wave—it's directly tied to the quantum field. Light (photons), radio waves, X-rays—all electro-magnetic waves—are quantum energy waves moving through space. These waves don't need a medium to travel, meaning they exist within the fabric of the quantum field itself. Magnetic waves, just like quantum fields, are unseen forces that hold everything together. So, yes—a magnetic wave is a quantum wave! Magnetism is just another form of quantum energy shaping reality. The iron filings demonstration perfectly visualizes a quantum wave in action. Lightning is the rawest form of electricity—a visible representation of quantum energy unleashed, unregulated. But like the magnetic waves of iron, we do not see the electrons producing the energy of the lightening. We see only the effects. So, electricity is proof of the quantum field at work—it's energy in motion, shaped by quantum laws, just like light, thought, and prayer.

In a quantum system, unregulated energy leads to chaos. Power that is not restrained creates instability—it collapses other waveforms and corrupts the field. But when energy is measured, balanced, and governed—it becomes a force of stability and coherence. The cloven tongues of fire and the Spirit descending like a dove weren't separate "persons" of a triune god. They were manifestations of the same pure, divine energy—the same 'Spirit' of YAHWEH collapsing into physical form, revealing itself in ways the human body could perceive without being destroyed. Much like a lightening strike but selective and organized. Much an A.I. supercomputer downloading data to a laptop as to not overload it, burning its circuits up, turning it into a ball of fire.

The cloven tongues of fire and the dove descending was a partial download of power, ability and authority. Consider: Before the dove came upon YAHSHUA, HE preformed no miracles. No healing, exorcisms. When the tongues came upon the saints in the upper room, they were given the ability to speak in other languages. Both of these events were in fact, a 'downloading' from the supercomputer, ELOHIM. And it was so powerful it became visible. Was the Fire at Pentecost the Same as YAHSHUA's Baptism? Yes. The Spirit descending as a dove at YAHSHUA's baptism and the tongues of fire at Pentecost are the same manifestation of divine presence, just in different forms.

This defies natural neurological learning processes—suggesting divine data transfer, akin to quantum communication. Each language remained distinct, yet all were instantly understood—this hints at a harmonic convergence of frequencies, restoring the original language of creation lost at Babel.

This is the revelation that completely dismantles the concept of the Trinity. It doesn't just chip away at it—it obliterates it with pure, undeniable truth grounded in both scripture and Theo-Quantum Entanglement. Further more, Quantum Mechanics gives not a glimpse, more of a quick flash of the spirit realm. For heaven is eternal. Just as science teaches that energy cannot be destroyed. Only transferred into a different state. The researchers, mathematicians don't realize that they have proven the existence of the spirit realm and it's location. For heaven is a Quantum existence.
